New Submerged Resources Just Dropped!!!!

OceanX Education Live Q&A Sessions for Teams

OceanX Education will be hosting 3 live Zoom Question and Answer (Q&A) sessions from the OceanXplorer ship in September. These hour-long sessions will be hosted by Dr. AnnMarie Thomas, who has a background in ocean robotics and education, and a long history of involvement in FIRST®. During the sessions, she will take questions from participants and give a tour of a few locations on the ship. Teams may sign up for a session by clicking on one of the dates below. Please note that times below are in E.T. (New York City) time. A recording will be available following the live Q&A sessions.

> Tuesday, September 10, 8:00-9:00 p.m. ET

> Saturday, September 14, 5:00-6:00 a.m. ET
